PRESS RELEASE

August 25, 2011

BANK ROBBERY SUSPECT IDENTIFIED

On Monday, August 22, 2011, the Huntington Bank located at 7529 Crile Road in Concord was robbed. The bank robbery suspect has been identified as William J. Andrasianus (pictured here).

The Lake County Crime Lab positively matched the prints from the demand note and service counter at Huntington Bank. As the Lake County Sheriff's Office Detective Bureau was matching Andrasianus with the surveillance photographs on August 23rd, Andrasianus robbed the Key Bank on Euclid Avenue in Wickliffe, Ohio.

He is currently being sought for aggravated bank robbery by the Wickliffe police department.

The Lake County Sheriff's Office, as well as the Wickliffe police department and FBI, are actively searching for William Andrasianus. He is 6' tall, approximately 150 lbs, hair is blonde, eyes are blue, and is 25 years old. If you have any information pertaining to this subject please contact the Lake County Sheriff's Office, Wickliffe Police Department or the Painesville office of the FBI.
